The Best of My Blog

The Fish Bob Feb 14 2012

Once upon a time there was a fish named Bob. He was a wise fish but one day fishermen came to fish. The fishermen put the worm on the hook and threw it in the water. And like 30 minutes later Bob saw the worm and Bob said “Yummy worm,” and Bob ate the worm but the fishermen was sleeping. And Bob was thinking of a way how to get out of this mess. And Bob thought “The hook is in my mouth so I have to think about how to get this hook out of my mouth.”

So he was thinking for a while. But finally he thought of something. He swam up and down left and right but the hook won't come off. But finally the fishermen woke up and saw the fishing pole move and he grabbed it as fast as he can and reeled in the fishing pole. But Bob got another way to get it off.

He swam farther and farther until the line snapped. Click, the line broke off and the hook came out of Bob. And Bob was happy that the hook came off.

Bob was so happy because the hook came off. He was jumping up and down. But guess what, there still a hole in Bob's mouth. He didn't feel the hole because he was too happy that the hook came off. But then he started to bleed. And he went to a fish hospital called The Fish Hospital. He had to stay there for one day. When he came out he was all patched up. But they didn't really patch him up, they just put on this tape called fish tape. It patches up any kind of fish, even a salmon. And Bob came out of the Fish Hospital and started to swim around. And the Fishermen put another worm on the hook and threw it into the water.

Bob saw the worm inside the water and was thinking about eating it. But the Fish doctor said "You can't eat anything for a day with that patch on.” But Bob didn’t care because he was so hungry. So Bob took off the patch and ate the worm. But guess what - again the fisherman was sleeping again. But the hook did not get stuck in Bob’s mouth because they put metal inside his mouth so every time he was hungry he would just eat as much worms as he wanted to.

And he met a friend named Ryan the fish. Ryan the fish was smart and wise just like Bob the fish. The End

Bye Bye Turkey

November 17 2011

By Landyn

Once upon a time there was a turkey named Turkey. He was a really brave turkey. But one day he almost got eaten on Thanksgiving night.

They put him in the oven. They cooked him for 5 hours. But did Turkey survive it or not? That is why I am going to tell you if Turkey survived it or not! Ok so now I am going to tell you.

On November 24 every year the farmer would take one turkey, but that turkey was Turkey.

They put Turkey in the oven. The next day Turkey got cooked. After they cooked him they put him by a window to cool off a bit. And back at the farm mommy turkey was crying like this “Waaaaaaa”, so Turkey jumped out the window and ran back to the farm.

Turkey was running as fast as he could. Finally he made it but Mommy turkey was gone. The

My favorite holiday is Christmas because I get toys, games, clothes and snow. I really like snow because I get to make a snow man and sometimes we have no school. I like making snowballs and throwing it at my mom and dad. In 2006 at my old house it was snowing and my mom threw a snowball at my face and then my face was super cold.

My Christmas Memory

December 9 2012 It was Christmas and mom and I and my dad were having a snowball fight. And my mom threw a snowball right at my face. It was really cold that made my face was all red. It was really funny.

I had to go back in to the house and then I went to take a shower because my face was freezing cold. When I came back out of the shower it was time to open the presents.

I had a bunch of presents to open and one of the toys that I really wanted. Well just who brought me it? Santa brought me the toy I wanted. I wanted a remote control tank that has a camera inside it so I can see where I am going.

I opened the gift my dad got me and the toy cost 70$. I put the gift together. And then I opened the present that my mom got me. The toy that my dad got me was Lego's and my mom got me more Lego's but I kind of like Lego's because you can build whatever you want with it. The End

My Trip to Hawaii

November 1 2011

I went to Hawaii last summer break. I went on a helicopter, submarine, and snorkeling in the middle of the ocean. It was so scary. Last but not least an airplane on the way back and on the way to there. I don't like the plane ride. I like it when it is in the air but I don't like it when we land because it hurts my ears really bad. Besides that was my first time on a plane. When we landed in Hawaii it didn't hurt my ear. I don't know why it is like that? Hawaii was the best trip I ever took in my life. But next is Six Flags Magic Mountain in California.

My Spooky Story October 28 2011

Once I was walking home.

When I walked past this house there was a scary pumpkin. The pumpkin scared me so bad! Because the pumpkin said, “Boo”!

The pumpkin scared me so bad that my spirit came out of me. Then I was in the hospital.

The next day I felt funny. Then the nurse came in and said “There are pumpkin guts in you” I said “AAHH!” Then I fell back asleep. The End

P.S. This story is not true.
