

The Best of my Blog

By Mari

Dedication

I dedicate this book to my Dad, Mom,
My Pets Fiona, Bachi, and Kelly.

About the Book

In the book we had to put 7 or 6 of our favorite stories and make it a story. So it's like a story with multiples story in one story.

My favorite's story has got to be The Weird Week. It's about a girl who just lost her best friend over a rumor and the rumor happens to her on her way of doing something important. Read the story and find out.

school so far

September 22, 2011

Well school is fun so far. I go to Ms. Salter for science and reading. And Mr. Fisk for math. Math and gym are my favorite.

The Map Test

The Map Test

September 30, 2011

I liked the math test better. Reading was ok, I like math because it's hard but not too hard. It's a good challenge. And it was really long and I like long things.

Xo's

October 18, 2011

I love the little Xo's, they're amazing. My favorite activity is speak and maze. I love switching to Gnome. I wish I had a Xo for life. And the name is Mike2 and the colors are dark purple and light purple.

My resolutions and wishes

January 6, 2012

My resolution and wishes

- 1 I wish that I will become a model.*
- 2 I wish that people wouldn't litter.*

- 1 I will watch less TV.*
- 2 I will be nice to my brothers.*
- 3 I will read one book every night.*

Some of my Favorite Things

October 10, 2011

My favorite video game is Connect fruit ninja because you don't need a controller, you just stand and slice the food. My favorite colors are light blue and aqua because it reminds me of Hawaii. My favorite animals are dogs and cats. My favorite movie is Anaconda. My favorite season is summer because there's no school and it's sunny. My favorite places to go are Disneyland, Ocean Shores, wild waves. My favorite Holiday is Christmas. My favorite day of the week is Saturday. My favorite weather is snowy. My favorite food is pizza. My favorite book is Charlie and the Chocolate factory and Charlie and the Great Glass Elevator.

The Knives

October 28, 2011

My friend Emily stayed home alone. The house has a curtain that separates the hall and living room. She hears footsteps down the hallway.

So she grabs all the knives she could find. And just threw them on her coffee table and they're all messy. She calls her mom and heard footsteps. She looks out and the knives are nice, neat, and organized.

She came to our house because she was scared. Then her mom came to our house because she knew Emily was there. When she went back and the knives were put away.

I think it really was true because when we went pick her up she was outside her house in the dark.

the Turkey Escape

November 17, 2011

My name is Mari and my sister's name is Mila and so is my grandma. We're turkeys. We hate Thanksgiving. Every hunter wants me because I'm fat. It's the day before Thanksgiving.

I'm walking through the forest with Mila, then something came falling out of the tree! It's a cage, RRUUUUNN!!! But I couldn't. I was already trapped. The cage was voice activated and the password was get out. My sister ran away and forgot about me. But now I was about to get cooked. But just as I was going to get cooked somebody broke in and he yelled get out. And I was free I ran all the way home. The burglar got what he wanted, money.

We moved to a city that doesn't celebrate Thanksgiving. And now I live with my sister Mila and my grandma.

Finland.

December 12, 2011

It was the night before I went to Finland. I was at my house packing. It was December 16, 2010. Logan, Connor, Dylan, my dad, and I we're all going to Finland. Tomorrow came. We all had to get up early in the morning so we wouldn't miss our plane. I threw up in the bathroom after the plane landed. But I always got plane sick.

On the 17th we were in Helsinki, Finland. We took days building this. There was at least 3ft of snow! They had a garage we used to make a track. The track went from the garage roof to the ground. It was the 20th when we drove to Jupijokie (A town in Finland). It was three hours of boredom. But our family was there and it was worth it. Our aunt, cousins, my godfather and mother were all there. After we all saw each other. We got a Christmas tree, and then we put up decorations.

On Christmas Eve Santa walks through the door.

It's a tradition they do in Finland. It was fun! I got almost everything I wanted. So we built a snow tunnel and it took us till the 28th to build it. It was huge. The grown ups could crawl through it! It took me and Logan days to build it. But we did it!

It was the 29th so we drove to Helsinki again and then we took a plane back to Seattle. There was still some more presents in Seattle for us. My favorite gift we all had to share was a kitten!! She is a tuxedo cat. We named her Kelly Kitty. She will hide in bags and we pick her up. She would peek her head out and play with her toys.

It was the best Christmas break ever!

Why you should keep decorations up after Christmas

January 10, 2012

*I think you should take them down around Dec 30,
31. Because we have a lot of decorations.*

Decorations are pretty and they make your house look prettier. They make your house stand out like the Manashies.

It takes a lot of work if you do it around your house so it makes sense to do it later cause instead of doing all that work you can chill and just play with your gifts from Christmas.

The Weird Week

So my names Chelsea, I don't believe in flying burgers, aliens shooting ketchup at the burger, and bowling pins that talk. Do you? The reason I bring it up is there's a rumor spread about what I just told you. I live in New York and crazy things happen. But not that crazy. I was walking home with my best friend ever. She and I we're talking about the rumor. She can't be my friend because she believes in the rumor, but I don't. I was heart broken. So I tried to tell her I believed she didn't buy it. But she was my only friend everyone else says I'm a nerd. I know I am a nerd. I have braces, glasses, and I don't dress the way normal people do. I had to go home and think about this Situation. I talked with my mom she said what my X best friend said "you're normal honey don't worry there just being mean." But I said it's everyone who thinks that. Dad moved away yesterday. (Screaming) AND NOTHING ABOUT MY LIFE HAS EVER BEEN NORMAL!!

Chelsea go to your room and think about what could make this better. OK, I was thinking so hard eventually she thought of something. She called the orthodontist her mom took her and got her braces removed. But she had to buy contacts. She knew she was on the right track to becoming normal. When she was normal. The Burger, the aliens, and the bowling pins came. I screamed her mom looked everywhere but only kids could she the mythical creature. She got taken away WITH THE ALIENS the next day at school. Everyone was worried. Where is she OMG she's gone? Her mom said so. She was hearing everything because aliens could hear anything. So she was happy that they we're worried about her. The alien let her go but, she had to make a deal to bring him a cooked turkey. And she did so she told her mom the dog ate it. When the alien really did. I was dressed normal and it felt good. I was happy I had at least 10 people who we're my friends. But best of all she got her best friend back, she felt normal no braces no glasses and she was dressed normal it was a happy ending. But the burger eventually rotted the aliens blew up cause they had too much turkey The bowling pins had mouth injuries from bowling balls once again a happy ending everyone.
